Why Camp BackBeat?

The goal of Camp BackBeat is for young people to build confidence and establish lasting teamwork skills through engagement in the performing arts.

During each camp day, aspiring performers immerse themselves in an imaginative and encouraging environment, with a focus on creating future leaders and lifelong friendships. Our experienced staff helps cultivate young artists' creative potential, while supporting campers' personal and interpersonal achievements at all levels.

The BackBeat Experience

- Get involved in all aspects of a full-scale musical theatre production
- Learn the secrets of ensemble performance
- Gain valuable skills in teamwork and cooperation
- Experience the thrill of performing in front of a live audience

Disney's Mulan Jr.

Based on the ancient Chinese legend of Mulan, the young woman who saved the Chinese army from the Huns, this musical challenges campers to redefine concepts of honor, tradition and love. With strong leading roles for both boys and girls and an ensemble that plays an essential role in the show, Mulan Jr. will allow campers to hone their acting skills while engaging in fun, upbeat musical and dance numbers.
